

NYC Family Justice Centers

Get free and confidential help for survivors of domestic and gender-based violence.

- Walk into the New York City Family Justice Center in the borough you live in (or one where you feel safest) to get connected to free and confidential assistance for victims and survivors of domestic and gender-based violence. All Centers are open Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. No appointment is needed.
- Call to be connected to immediate safety planning, shelter assistance, and other support and resources—24 hours, 7 days a week:
 - 311
 - NYC's Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Hotline 1-800-621-4673 (HOPE).
- Find resources and support in NYC by searching the City's NYC HOPE Resource Directory at www.nyc.gov/NYCHOPE

The Family Justice Centers can help you with:

- Planning for your safety
- Mental health and counseling services to support emotional well-being for you and your children
- Referrals to education programs, including workshops to help with budgeting, credit repair, and English as a Second Language (ESL) classes
- Meeting with trained law enforcement, such as NYPD, NYC Sheriff's Office, and District Attorney's Office
- Applying for shelter, housing and other support services
- Information about public benefits and job training programs, including help with resume writing and interviewing skills
- Legal consultations for orders of protection, custody, visitation, child support, divorce, housing and immigration
 -  Legal representation is not guaranteed
- Childcare for children age 3+ while you get services on-site

All services are voluntary.
You can choose the services that you want.

The Mayor's Office to End Domestic and Gender-Based Violence (ENDGBV) develops policies and programs, provides training and prevention education, conducts research and evaluations, performs community outreach, and collaborates with diverse communities and community stakeholders to increase awareness of domestic and gender-based violence. ENDGBV operates the New York City Family Justice Centers, service centers which provide vital social services, civil legal and criminal justice assistance, and more—all under one roof. Learn more at www.nyc.gov/ENDGBV

At any New York City Family Justice Center, survivors of domestic and gender-based violence and their children can get connected to organizations that provide case management, economic empowerment, counseling, civil legal, and criminal justice assistance.
